Conference Track: Please indicate the track(s) that best fits your presentation. (Select up to two.)

____ Next Steps to Ending Youth Homelessness

The work to end youth homelessness by 2020 is underway and new approaches are needed in engaging, assessing, and serving unstably housed young people. This track will focus on creative solutions to providing safe and stable housing for this population.

____ All on Board to End Family Homelessness

This track will focus on successful strategies for helping prevent first episodes of homelessness through diversion and mediation, as well as building systems of support around children and parents experiencing homelessness.

____ Cutting Edge Approaches to Ending Homelessness

New strategies in rapid re-housing, client engagement and utilizing data will be featured in this track.

____ Building on Our Successes

Learning from the tremendous successes of the past couple of years, this track will feature unique efforts by local providers to embrace the changes to our crisis response system, including work of shelters, housing providers, and coordinated entry staff.

____ Putting It All Together: Building Systems for Everyone

Utilizing knowledge gained from building our crisis response system, this track will focus on creating housing solutions for populations at risk as they re-enter communities from incarceration, hospitals, and the child welfare system.

____ Access and Assistance for All: Serving LGBTQ people

This track highlights best practices in serving our LGBTQ community and assuring safe shelter, fair housing, and welcoming environment for all in our service provisions.

Outcomes: Please specify 2-3 skills or pieces of information that participants will gain from the session.
